You can call me whatever the hell you want. I certainly don't give a damn.

In Angel of Dawn's post, the fact that he was talking about the logo was implied. (Yeah, I know, it's a big word. But look it up and then go back and read that thread again. Maybe if you try really hard you'll figure it out.)

Also, you quite obviously don't care about the community. We can figure it out even without you explicitly saying it. (Examples: nitpicking with people for totally insignificant things, starting arguments just for fun, continually bashing other people's mods rather than offering constructive criticism, refusing to share information about how to modify things)
