CrimsonEveryone? I don't think he's an idiot. I prefer his way of speaking to Clinton's any day.

Is it hard for you to understand Clinton when he uses words more than four syllables long without stumbling on them?

K9TrooperOK, here is a little fact for you. People with high IQ's tend to have problems with verbal communication.

Ha ha! You're trying to pretend that George Bush mispronounces words and doesn't use big ones because he's too smart? Wow, that's a new one. I laugh at you. I really do.

NodbuggerSegways are dangerous when their batteries are low. They fall over. I think the latest segway accident claimed 50 lives.

Out of curiosity, how did a Segway falling over claim 50 lives?
