Why bash Reborn? For me, it's from personal experience. I'd bash other mods, but i've never played other mods. Nor have I beta tested other mods (RenAlert being a VERY vague exception). Reborn has been handled poorly, developed poorly, and brought to the public poorly. Yet, the team still seems to believe it's the greatest mod in the world, and because of this, they enjoy bashing everyone just as much as Ack does. There's audacity, then there's stupidity. The latter falls on the shoulders of the Reborn crew. I should know, I was with them for a time.
