just finished watching the episode 3 of both series

atlantis is very good

ooh btw did anybody notice in series 08 ep 3 that one of the soldiers(the one jack (anubis) zapped in the self destruct control room) was the guy that played the young general hamond when they gated back in time??

kinda confused as to why he is casted :S
