Hey HTMLGOD... the w3d engine can support lazer like the ones of star wars... The only thing I hated in the last beta was the fucking nod lazars on every aircraft !!!

Some dudes on Imperial Assault added the lazars on the w3d engine.

I show you an example :

And about the buildings : Who did copy the other ?

Or maybe thsoe are the real concept of star wars (I don't really know, I admit)

You can see more there of ths amazing mod :
