RenxYet you've probably never even touched the download :rolleyes:

I haven't played the newest release yet, but that came out only a couple days ago, and I'm leaving tomorrow morning & will be gone until October. (Also, I'm 1000 miles away from my computer and I'm not about to put any crap like RenAlert on my friend's PC.)

I think the vast majority of the comments I've made on these forums were BEFORE the newest release, though, so that "you haven't tried it yet" argument is invalid.
