I could care less about drugs, tons of my friends do them, from pot to speed. Hell, they were doing it while i was standing right next to them tonight. I don't and never will smoke, though, and I don't hold teenage smokers in high regaurd, if I don't know them personally. Smoking is a trend now, and trends are for fuckheads. But then again, I've got a mohawk and I dress like a dilinquent that got attacked by scissors, so I guess I'm just following a trend too. Whoopsies.

hijacked :D
