DaVysedude get off your high horse and go save the tree's or something...

I earned my high horse. You want a piece of this argument? Take a swing. Mr. Ed says piss off unless you have a logical statement on the subject. This forum might not be here if it wasn't for the time I left in my wake making Renegade --- you know --- Renegade Public Forum. You wanna pay me for all the overtime I didn't get? I'll say what I want and you can go eat it.

How about I use the soapbox now. Or maybe an apple crate. Even better... you stand in a trench like the old days.
