xC4pRoXphlakatonTo all you idiots who don't want to pay for your games... I think you're sorry losers. What do you think it takes to make these games YOU love so much to play? It takes money. Lots of money. It also takes real people who earn a living for their family. Why don't you go get a stinkin' job and pay for it. Jerks.

LOL...

Doom3 was made for the single player not the multiplayer. Although i would love to play threw the single player on very hard with 4 friends...But i cant because i downloaded te game because i have better stuff to spend my money on.

Is there a reason your not signed up for the allstar game? Even your brother is signed up, get your ass on clanwars and register.
