NeoXmajikentPantherNeoXSell outs. :rolleyes:

What's that supposed to mean?

Apparently it's a new phrase he learned today...

Yup. They are sellouts because they made one good game and then they servived off buy buying the 2 best mods and living off them....and then they take 10x longer to finish HL2 because they are basicly making 1 new game and 3 diffren multiplayer games...not including Tema Fortress if they do that too. They should have focused on on thing and not be gay and pay people money so they can sit on there ass. And they did that gay port to Ps2. And all they did was pretty much port the mod over and made the graphics better its exactly the same except for the physics.

You have not a single clue what goes on in a game studio, so shut your mouth. They aren't paid to sit there, that's not what they do.

Pull your head out of your ass.
