majikentWow... so worked up over something that doesn't matter, and people you'll never meet. When I'm tired my feelings magnify. I was posting at 2 am, so I wasn't exactly wide awake. I still stand by the fact that I hate morons like him that think they're funny because they can crack a pathetic joke.

Back to topic: My computer is still too shitty to play Doom 3. I need to upgrade it, and luckily I about have the money to get everything needed.
