PendullumAircraftkillerI'm not out to impress you.

I agree with you, 100%...

Unfortunatley, your not out to impress anyone else either. You dont have a profesional attitude, I dont see the makers of far cry saying to the half life 2 team "half life sucks"

Why is it that you can make some sort of assumption about what I'm out to impress if you have no idea about who I am, what I want, or what I do?
