Havoc 89i never said anything like that did i? i just said most of you have "crappy" computers. (well compared to mine atleast)

and just so you know that is my Humvee.

If you honestly believe your computer is the universe, which I highly doubt unless you have A LOT of money to pay for it, state your system information.

BTW, if you made that humvee, it sure does need a lot work. Seeing a close up picture of it before, the textures were stretched and deformed badly and it's not very accurate.
