PermaGrinSo let me get this straight Ack. If I make a cheat and use it just in RenAlert, its ok?

To Crimson....MY ASS. Sorry I cant find the post to quote you on it directly. You have stated on the Renstation Forum in the Mod section, "I know people that use cheats and you would never find out." You said something very close to those words in the aftermath of Renstation removing RenGuard.

I didn't say I condoned it. I meant that I've read posts from people. Anyone who knows how to edit the files that let you cheat can make slight modifications and other changes to pass any "test" a moderator might want to give them. But... RenGuard stops all of them.
