SuperFlyingEngiCrimsonYeah, that's my opinion, too. If their position was so strong they wouldn't have to worry about some pissant candidate "taking their votes".

Bob Dole took away votes for George Bush Senior when he was running against Bill Clinton, I'm sure a great number of Republicans complained about that. So is their position weak, too?

This Republican wouldn't complain. I mean, in my opinion, any idiot who votes Democrat is taking votes away from Republicans, too... what's the difference? I'll complain about a candidate based on their stance on the issues and past performance in public office. After all, this is really just the longest job interview with the most bosses/interviewees.
