There is no way you can miss the right wing feel of FOX- especially on the debate shows. My advice would be to pick a left wing network and watch both that and FOX, somewhere in between the two you MIGHT be able to figure out what's really going on. :rolleyes:

It's actually rather funny- a few years ago, no one could have imagined that the internet would become a more reliable source of information than the news, but since all the TV networks are either rating whores, biased, or both, the only place you can find a good, neutral opinion is by poking around online. Or walking up to a trusted informant and asking them what the fuck is really going on. Either way, your TV is not to be trusted. Even the goddamn newspapers are going down the tubes.
