The main reason why i stopped playing Ladder Games for ladder (LARGE servers) 50 player/40 ecta for the big points thats why i retired and made July 2004 as my last ladder whore run. And started playing SMall games sometimes big games. Because ive had games.. were lets say GDI only has barracks. with 3 mins left. They are obviously out of money only bar. THEN we get like '5 apc's wich own the inf with easy, 3 nukes back of bar gets disarmed in 1 sec. Most of the time Cheaters are on GDI too.

wich causes a loss.

anyways just my idea. Im not willing to run renguard my own and seeing other serves full. SMall games are already hard to fill up. We all go run it.. and see what hapens then, if not well im just staying for that eventually in a small game a cheater is easier to find.
