cowmisfitlol, no no no, he's cutting off morons who go off subject and dodge questions, no dodging questions number 1 rule in the no spin zone

Ok, if dodging questions counts as answering them in a logical way, I can see where you're coming from. When someone is throwing stuff in Bill O' Reilly's face [Side note: You know that "57% of all statistics are made up on the spot" thing? Well, most of 'em came from Bill 'O Lielly.] he starts shouting them down, and won't even let them speak. Then he just cuts them off. It's not then they go off topic, it's when they stay on topic that it bothers O'Lielly.
