Ok, I'm not even going to comment on the whole plastic thing, you believe what you want.

But as for your name, ACK is the acronym for your name, AirCraftKiller. See what I did there :rolleyes:

And a lot of people call you by that too.

And as for your statistics on the games. Who cares. Gameplay is what matters, and RenAlert is shit. (And I highly doubt that those statistics aren't a little biased. :rolleyes: )
