PermaGrin^ Exactly. Thats my points. Its either these plastic toys from Renardin or a 5 year old crayola artist from me.

To Ack..ther are difference between them.

Either way it'll look like ass. Maybe what AK is saying is true. Maybe if the team actually tried harder they could impress the community and spark interest in skinners/modelers that would offer their expertise. Maybe not, but I don't see where hard work can't pay off.
