You don't know me. You can't say that I have no life. I try to hang out with my friends as much as possible, but sometimes I can't since school and work get in the way of making plans. Plus, I'm not the one who edited somebody's post in that way. I didn't say "somebody shove a dildo up your ass" now did I? I may have said "go back to butt fucking your GSA buddies" but that was after the fact that you edited zunnie's post.

I'm not getting upset, dipshit. I always swear. It's just the way I am. Also, when I bought the game, it wasn't $10 it was $50. You're a fucking n00blet and know nothing about the community, so piss off.
