GunVixen! I'm only going to tell you all this one more time. I've got no idea who the hell, Lynne is. You can continue to think that's who I am, but I'm not. Did, Lynne live in West Virginia? Because, that's where my IP is. You can check too if you like. I got nothing to do with this person. It's not who I am, and your all just going to have to learn to deal with that.

Sorry, I'm not anyone's girl friend back from the dead. I've never had lounge cancer, I don't have a sister having cyber sex affairs with people. I hate to disappoint, but it's just not happening here. Those picture's posted are who I am. Trust it or not, that's the truth.

Something happens like this in every topic (In a sense). Its best to Just ignore them.
