lol u dont but some do... i play on tfsrv all the time and there is no cheater in months...my point is that IF people want a cheater free game to go RG servs, if they dont care then go to other servs.. there are always some empty RG srvs...

why r u forcing everyone to play on rg srvs... u do if you want, if other dont play on rg srvs then its their loss...

zunnie dont care if there are more people who start cheating now because of the link in the video.

Fact is it wont be on mine because its running RenGuard.

End.
