it may seem early, but i'm listening to cnn radio on the pc right now and a story they just reported has bugged me.

please remember at election time the things your senators/politicians have said recently. most especially, 3 democrats in the senate... i hope i get these right... these are all against the war, feel sadaam is no threat, very anti bush, say the war is illegal etc ohio/dennis casinish(sp?) says unjust illegal texas/ sheila jackson lee california/diane watson embarassed by the us.

howard dean democrat running for president in 2004 if you hear of any others (republican or democrat) please add them here so that people will hopefully remember when election comes around for the record, here in nebraska, we have 1 democrat senator(ben nelson) and he is supportative of the war and bush in most things. our other representatives are republican and are also pro war/pro bush
