Quote:And I seriously don't see how you can say what people are doing to American troops in Iraq is suprising. Yes, Americans are dieing on account of terrorists in Iraq. But 12,000 (?) Iraqi civilians have been killed by us, and we INVADED THEIR COUNTRY. Of course people are going to retaliate.

Do you honestly think Americans are responsible for 100% of the Civilian casualties in Iraq?

We have done less 50%. Other than that it has been terrorist attacks that have killed civilians.
