jeez guys, give us a break,
on behalf of Cugs Dominance

That was our first clan match, and we were never told by anyone to leave or even out the teams. They let us have that many players because they knew we sucked anyway.... We're getting better though, maybe some rematches someday.....
Oh and we never 'forced' them to go to cugsworld clan server, we tried it and it sucked, so we went to a neutral renguard protected server.

Looking forward to more matches in the future!
