2000_yearsGenerals I thought was pretty good, even though it's not really C&C at all (it plays more like Starcraft imo)

Tiberian Dawn I still view as the best of them all, though probably because it's the first RTS I ever played. (A skirmish addon would have been quiet cool though indeed for me it was red alert, then tiberian dawn. they both rocked!

played it on ps1. After that i played tiberian sun on pc then renegade.

Never realy played the others. yea the campaign but not as much as renegade/dawn/ra1
