Xptek got banned and came back again but under God's (Crimson's) willing grace.

A n00b named sw33t got banned and he is ban evading as Alostoul (I think). So any post by him just disregard as trash.

Erm... what else...

NeoX got named official forum ass monkey.

SuperFlyingEngi was brain washed by liberal America.

j_ball430 had his account hacked by EAX on this forum and that is currently being worked out.
