SEALWhen I sit down and watch Fox News, I am continually disgusted by phrases like "Only 160 days until you can re-elect Bush..." (referring to number of days left before election).

That is what Sean Hannity sometimes says when the show "Hannity & Colmes" comes out of a commercial break. He says it really as a joke to Alan Colmes sitting to his left.

"Hannity & Colmes" is an opinion show. Hannity gets paid to express his opinion. It is not his job to report the news; it's his job to comment on it and express his own opinions about the news. He is a news commentator, not a news reporter. That's like saying CNN is biased because James Carville expresses his opinion on Crossfire.

Sean Hannity's opinion is no proof of bias in Fox's reporting.

Quote:Somehow, when I watch CNN or CBS news, that feeling of biased reporting is gone...hmm...

That's because they're biased in more subtle ways.

(That was a joke; I can't be bothered to post proof right now )

Aprime1Don't hijack my topic, kthx.

No, SEAL and I are taking it and running with it, and there's nothing you can do to stop us!!!!
