I got this from a Navy friend and I think some need to read this....

Those who protest ought to remember who's covering their back to keep them safe!

Some food for thought ....

I am a small and precious child, my dad's been sent to fight...
The only place I'll see his face, is in my dreams at night.
He will be gone too many days for my young mind to keep track.
I may be sad, but I am proud. My daddy's got your back.

I am a caring mother. My son may go to war...
My mind is filled with worries that I have never known before
Everyday I try to keep my thoughts from turning black.
I may be scared, but I am proud. My son has got your back.

I am a strong and loving wife, with a husband soon to go.
There are times I'm terrified in a way most never know.
I bite my lip, and force a smile as I watch my husband pack...
My heart may break, but I am proud. My husbands got your back...

I am a soldier, Serving Proudly, standing tall.
I fight for freedom, yours and mine by answering this call.
I do my job while knowing, the thanks it sometimes lacks.
Say a prayer that I'll come home. It's me who's got your back.

I would urge all of you as good, God fearing, patriotic, AMERICAN citizens to stand by all of the people that are already over there preparing to give their lives for us and our way of life.

Let us not have another Vietnam and all the callous hatred that our people had to come home to face.
