liberatorI mean the way the Lefties(dems, commies, ect) have successfully divided the country, it seems like we're on the verge of civil war sometimes.

How have liberals been dividing the country? Or is that just your FOX-brand force-fed opinion of the day? An actual way Republicans divide the country is through their many wedge issues like gay marriage.

Moving on, NHJ, from what I've heard the debates now have a 32-page rulebook, with debaters not being allowed to address each other, and just taking questions from the audience that have to be ratified by the director. It's just a system for George Bush to be able to recite his talking points by never taking any hardball questions.

Well, we'll see how the debates go, but they're not going to be what they used to be.
