kurt421I only have a 700mhz cpu and 256 RAM, so at best my computer can run renegade at about 10fps and 4fps as soon as theres something like a flammer on screen. yes it does effect how good i am, perticualy sniping.

But i dont go around saying that its unfair... anyone who thinks its uinfair if someone has a faster PC needs needs to get a life as its only a game. And if someone has that much of a problem with it they shud just upgrade there PC or not bother playing renny.

**Gasp** someone with a slower machine than mine!!!

Yes, I run at 7 to 12 fps as well, and can't snipe worth a darn, however us old computers can still be quite good, like taking down buildings, tank driving, and most of all engie support.
