What business is it of yours how I treat people that have nothing to do with you? If you want to play Moral Crusader I'll follow you around and start beating on you whenever you do something I don't like. The fact is that it doesn't concern you and you shouldn't be butting into this.

You totally ignore the fucking reason why I hate Reborn. If I hate something I AM NOT GOING TO WANT TO HELP IT. Is that so difficult to comprehend? If someone lies to me (and this community), deceives me, and pretends nothing is wrong I WILL DO SOMETHING ABOUT IT even if it's only limited to bashing the fuck out of them in every available opportunity.
