Silent KaneChronojam You should start a pure-mode RG server up and offer a reward of like, some RAM or something, for the first person to go in there and show they have a cheat it won't detect. If you're secure they don't, that is. Wouldn't really be a competition. I know several ways to use undetectable cheats. But since we don't want cheats, I'm not going to tell anyone how to do that shiz.

Except for Crimson.
