How could you get bored of those?

Here's a joke a friend told me that is off topic:

A boy went to the park and saw a old man crying his eyes out on a park bench.

"Why are you crying?" asked the boy.

"I married a 25 year old hottie and she does all the housework and rakes in the cash and we have sex every night!" The old man sobbed.

"So why are you crying?" asked the perplexed child.

"I forgot where I live!"
