30,000 + Bush Supporters, 10 - 15 Kerry Supports with no clothes having butt sex in the parking lot, priceless. They took off there clothes and got on top of each other to protest the abuse of prisinors in iraq. A liberal walked by with a sign that said and i quote, "Liberol Voter" now i spell bad, but if im putting something on a sign i would make damn sure its right. He must have been the child left behind. The way he came in was Fking awesome 3 military chinooks landed outside the stadium with the limmos and such on them then 2 presidential coppters landed with him I'll be posting pictures as soon as i get them devoloped. I loved every minute of it, he made a terrific speach. My throaht hurts though from screaming at protesters and cheering.
