NeoXYes most people noticed. :rolleyes: But they didnt make an entire thread to spam about it. I made three spam posts and then I get that title....w.e I dont care.

It is slightly LESS spamful than quoting what everybody says and not actually adding anything to the conversation.

Another point, people should seriously have realised by now, if they post in a topic saying they don't care, they will get flamed. If you don't care don't post, if you do care, don't just quote...
