oblivion165..how am i fucked, i got it, and it works fine. Online plays great. I hope you know there is always a patch to anything. Im sorry but its true. Give it a month or so and youll see EA move in and fuck the whole thing up. I waited 7 years for goldeneye 2. EA made it and it blows ass. Great companies go under even if pirates dont mess with it. RARE went under long before the first N64 emu came out. And i somewhat agree with NeoX, i would like to try the product first, hell i own three copies of renegade, and 4 mint copies of FF7, because they earned their status.

So far half life 2 is a big let down. just like Halo. First 8 hours your just on a swamp bike, and you cant even see your hands. The game has just started and its already so repetative its sickning. The lvs are impressive in detail though.

I say lock this, it isnt going anywhere.

But in Halo 2 you can see your GOD DAMN FEET!!

Can't see your hands? that'll piss me off.
