glyde51 If you don't like it keep things to yourself...

Did you all fail Grade One or something? I learned to be a nice little boy there...

(Fucking stupid people, they must have failed grade one)

Dumbass, it goes, "If you don't have anything nice to say, don't say anything at all." The thing is I don't like it, so I'm going to tell them what I don't like about it. It's not being mean at all. If they actually take your criticism and try to work from it, it could better the product. That's why it's always good to speak up. You must not be that far enough in grade school to understand that lying is wrong.
