hydra1945That's because Christianity is an evil religion, and Christians are just trying to force their religion on others. Take the Crusades for example. Malevolent Christians invaded Muslim holy lands in the name of their "God." They slaughtered millions of benevolent, peace-loving muslims in an attempt to steal land that they claimed was sacred to them when it's sacred to muslims only. The muslims had every right to take that land from the Christians in the first place, don't you see?

Jerusalem is holy to Christians, Jews and Muslims. Not just the Muslims.
