^Fast loading site, 1 pop-up (that's it!) easy to read template.

We were =FA= but we merged with ED, making us elite assassins.

We currently have 20 members.

EA is recruiting and desperately looking for very good renegade players. We have many things to offer you, but first you must have something to offer the clan.

We expect you to be able to participate in the forums regularly, clan wars and clan practises when possible.

Experenice as leader of EA:

I was from BD, a co-leader that basically ran the entire clan. The leader was a little 13 year old kid that spammed up the forums like crazy, so I left and took some of BD best players with me. I also was in FU, TD, and ED. Those 3 clans kind of fell apart after a while so I was introduced to BD, and now I have my clan!

We have a teamspeak server, a renegade server, a forum, site, new rank system*, respsonibilities to be given out, and more! Just check us out!

*Our rank system is based on EXP, experience points located on the forums. These points are awarded for witnessed good performance by leaders. You can trade in your exp for promotions, mod privildges in forums, mod privildges in server and more! The points are visible to everyone so there is some competition Hope you check us out! <http://www.ea-forums.tk>
