I just conducted an impromptu experiment. It proves nothing but illustrates the point.

I loaded a Skirmish00 map against some AI, I don't have broadband at this location. Anyway, I started with a deadeye(gdi 500 sniper) I killed 8 AIs before I died. I then bought a havoc(gdi n00bjct) and proceeded to kill 10 or 12 before i quit. I ran out of ammo, I didn't die. Nor am I the best sniper in the world, as anybody whose played against me can attest(I'm Ayle on the UN servers), I am more of a spray and pray type of player.
