bigejoe14I wish some of you people would just shut the fuck up. You complained that you wanted a new C&C game for so long, you finally got one now, but you turn right back around and bitch about the fact that EA is making it.

Say you like it, say you hate it, then just shut up. We don't need anymore of this "EA SUX" bullshit.

EA sucks. HAHHAHAHA. I can say it because I worked at that ... shop. SWEAT SHOP.
