i myself have taken a pack of n00bjets today(4). And you assume that I am the ONLY sniper trying to kill them as well, i will be shot at by more snipers probably, but so will they. It balances out, and if it doesnt balance out, its your own fault. Like I said before, a skilled sniper beats an unskilled sniper 85% of the time. I say 85% because the n00b might get lucky and score a hs or two body shots. But i can live with that cuz of the points you get for a Havoc hs and the money it takes them in order to obtain the ramjet make it so its fair.

I am not speaking for myself, i almost never use a ramjet, just because i suck with them. The fire rate for the 500 is just soo much better than the 1000(another reason why it balances out in sniper/sniper warfare).
