First off, I hope everyone had a good holiday. I was traveling for Christmas to see some family so I was away from Renegade for a while.

I'm back now- still addicted on Renegade.

Anyway, here's my question. I was wondering if there happens to be a way that you can get your friendly AI bots to make a tank for themselves or jump into the tank that you're driving in multiplayer. I'm not so positive that this is possible as it is not in single player- but hey, I was just asking.

Thanks, and once again, happy holidays. Happy New Year!
