glyde51BiGPooLoG.glyde51Ugh... so many typos on my part...

And I'm getting insulted by someone who named itself BiGPooLoG. How embarresing (ugh, pardon my spelling).

Quote:Take this pointy hat and sit in that corner.

Out of all the people that should hate me (people I made fun of), I have this BiGPooLoG stuck to my shoe and I can't seem to scrape it off.

Erg, and it was a Help forum that couldn't spell, there's IRONY in that, I don't say "Hey, if you ned som help com ovre here!"

And glyde is so much better? You spelled over wrong btw. You aren't a very good person to be making fun of others for spelling when it seems you can't spell correctly (or think of a > 3rd grade comeback for that matter) either.

Typo >_<

Why DO you feel the need to make fun of someone everyone hates so much it's out of style to make fun of him? Just being at this forum makes my self-esteem go down.

I'm sorry my self-image and popularity on a video game forum doesn't exceed yours, but since your self-esteem is so low that the only enjoyment you get out of life is this forum and your little paintings, then please proceed to think your conceeded little ass is better than everyone elses.
