cowmisfitThey didn't come to iraq because they had dealings with saddam once again THEY'D LOOSE MONEY , the most important thing in the world to them.

Wow... You really don't know what America's been doing lately, do you?

cowmisfitAbout reading a non-american text book, i have , im in College Prep European History were we have an Biased left wing text book peice of shit that says were only in Iraq for oil Biased? Perhaps. Left wing? Certainly. But if you replace "only" with "mainly", it's right.

cowmisfitSpoony if your saying we didn't help save the french in WWI or WWII you really need to go talk to a few of your elders, your grandfather or soemthing or someoen elses grandfather, see what there opinon of that is,

I didn't say you didn't "help". You said "we saved their asses", implying the USA won WWII single-handedly, and that's garbage, sorry bud.

cowmisfittho considering how much you stand up for the french over your own nation What the hell?

cowmisfitDave, when did they stab anyone in the back?? RIGHT NOW THEY ARE Since when is "not wanting to fight a war" "stabbing you in the back"?

cowmisfityour a forigner so i wouldn't expect you to understand this concept with out an argument At the moment, I don't expect you to understand anything at all.

cowmisfitif 3000 of there citizins were killed we'd follow and back them 100% becasue we are there ALLIE

Funny, because when thousands of Afghani civilians are killed by the inaccuracy of the USA's child-maiming cluster bombs, that's perfectly acceptable? I really hate to burst this bubble for you, but a human life is not worth more or less whether it belongs to a USA sports commentator, a Chinese student, a French salesman, whatever.

cowmisfitit happens to american and they pretty much say shuv it until we can get something out of it.

No, they say "the war is bullshit", which it kinda is...
