[sgtheOne]AprimeThat God is with you? That's bull! Seriously, the thing you call God isn't for war or any crap, you certainly misunderstood the bible or something, cause "God" isn't for war.

So please, don't think that God's with you cause he's not.

Other than that, have a nice day:).

oh and, Bagdad got 0w3d

Sorry to be rude but here we go.

So you called God and verified that He isn't with us?

Right....You say what you want about God, we'll say what we want.

Read the Old Testimate before you start talking about God & war.

Do you even know what your talking about or did this just sound good in your head?

Have a nice day.

How do people think the Wall of Jericho fell? By an army supported by God.
