If your a mod and you don't know what a cheat looks like just by watching a player in the game and not some video then one of two things should happen

- A) You shouldn't be in the spot in the first place
- B) Log a lot more hours into playing, its not that hard.

People act to quick to ban / cheat. THINK PEOPLE THINK.

This was a good video tho, i was very surprised with the whole having a weapon and no one else being able to see it, thats something i would have never thought of even. The cheat i think is the most annoying and hard to detect however is the decloaking stealth one, thats one of those were you can just bs it and say "WELL HE WAS CLOSE SO I SAW HIM": Or something stupid like that.
