lol Java,

Quote:Just to clarify, you would still get to carry rifles. It is a handgun ban, not a total firearms ban.

I'm all for it then if it gives me the right to keep an ak47 on a shoulder strap on my person at all times... lol

Seriously though you aren't allowed to walk around with a rifle anyhow. If you ban handguns you ban the most effective home defense weapon. Only people who's last names end with atfield and coy sleep with a loaded double barrel shotgun.
